I hope to offer my certification, education, and excellent interpersonal skills to your company as a Phlebotomy Technician (PT) or as an Electrocardiogram (EKG) Phlebotomy Technician. First, I have acquired my PT and EKG PT certifications as I have recently completed the EKG/Phlebotomy Technician program at Unitech Training Academy; therefore, I have the required education needed to become an excellent technician. Please reference the attached recommendation from Ms. Pricilla Scott, an educator at Unitech Training Academy.

Next, I have been a self-employed cosmetologist for the past 26 years. Within this time span, I have worked at three salons and proven to be a dedicated, diligent, and trustworthy professional. Similarly, I possess natural interpersonal skills, creating solid amicable relationships with salon owners, fellow employees, and clients—many of which have resulted in existing lifetime friendships. Please see these additional references, which are also attached. Ultimately, I enjoy communicating with people as I have an ability to make people feel happy and at ease, which I believe to be vital skills when one is working with patients.

Last, I feel these skills combined with my certification and education make me an excellent candidate for your company. Thank you for allowing me to submit this resume. I hope to secure an interview to learn more about your company and reveal more of my qualifications and myself.

I have since added phlebotomy experience to my resume.

Sincerely,

Robin Landry NCPT

To whom it may concern:

I have had the distinct pleasure of having Robin Landry in my EKG/Phlebotomy class since January 17, 2012. Through this time I have witnessed tremendous growth and development. She has a great sense of maturity and an outstanding character.

Robin is very respectful and a dependable person. She has the ability to meet strict deadlines. She knows the importance of a strong work ethic.

Robin has successfully completed all requirements to move on in the phlebotomy program. She is ready to be an EKG/Phlebotomy Technician. I recommend Robin Landry as the ideal candidate to fill a position at your facility.

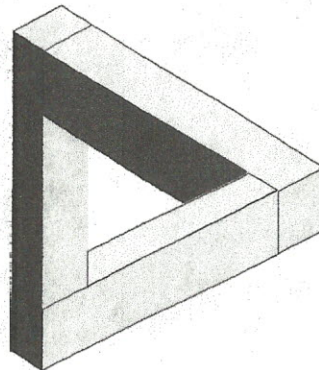

Respectfully Submitted,
